

First Generation Medical Student in Surgery

Join the First-Generation Medical Student Rotation at Creighton University School of Medicine!

Program Highlights:

- Gain hands-on experience in our renowned general surgery service
- Learn from experienced surgeons and medical professionals
- Engage with a diverse patient population
- Enhance your clinical skills and knowledge in surgery
- Develop meaningful connections with faculty and peers
- Foster personal and professional growth

We understand the financial challenges that may arise during rotations. That's why we offer a $4000 stipend to accepted students. This stipend is intended to help offset the cost of travel, housing, fees, and any incidental expenses, ensuring that you can fully immerse yourself in this valuable learning experience.

Apply through VSLO.

Program Details:

- Duration: 4-week rotation on the general surgery service
- Eligibility: Open to first-generation medical students
- Application Process: Submit your application, including your personal statement and CV
- Selection: A committee will review applications and notify selected candidates
- Mentorship: Assigned faculty mentors will guide and support you throughout the rotation

Why Choose Creighton University School of Medicine? At Creighton, we are committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive learning environment. We celebrate the unique perspectives and experiences that first-generation medical students bring to the field of medicine. Our distinguished faculty and supportive community will empower you to excel in your journey toward becoming a compassionate and skilled physician.