

The Sidney Kimmel Medical College of Thomas Jefferson University Hospital First Look Event for Inclusive Excellence for Jefferson Residency Applicants

Virtual Open House

The Offices of Graduate Medical Education and Diversity Inclusion Initiatives at SKMC invites Underrepresented in Medicine (URiM) medical students interested in learning about residency training programs at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital. Gain first-hand knowledge from our program directors and residents about life in Philadelphia, graduate medical education, as well as our diversity, equity, and inclusion activities.

Date: Tuesday, September 3, 2024

Time: 5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Location: Zoom (scan the QR code to register).

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/X272VDV>

Our Commitment to Diversity

Diversity is the richness in human differences. In an inclusive environment, each person is valued for their unique identities. The Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University promotes and cultivates an inclusive environment that embraces and celebrates the diversity of our people. We believe that this is key to achieving excellence in our missions of patient care, education, and research. Our mission and values will create and nurture physicians who provide compassionate and culturally sensitive care to the diverse patient population that they serve.